The Pinellas County Sheriff’s Office is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, marital status, religion, national origin, gender, veteran status, age, disability, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected status.

EEOC INFORMATION

The Pinellas County Sheriff's Office Guidelines on employee Selection Procedures requires records to be kept by gender and race/ethnic categories defined by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). The Sheriff's Office Guidelines on employee Selection Procedures have been adopted as final rules by the EEOC, the Office of Personnel Management, the Justice Department, and the Department of Labor.

Pinellas County Sheriff's Office is subject to certain record keeping and reporting requirements for the administration of civil rights laws and regulation. In order to comply with these laws, we invite you to voluntarily self-identify your race or ethnicity. Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment.

The information obtained is considered confidential and will only be used in accordance with the provision of applicable laws, the executive orders, and regulation, including those that required the information be summarized and reported to the federal government for civil rights enforcement. The Human Resources Bureau has adopted safeguards to insure that the records required are used for the appropriate purposes within the Bureau such as determining adverse impact or for monitoring our affirmative action program.

The concept of race used by the EEOC does not denote clear-cut, scientific definitions of anthropological origins. Applicants may be included in groups to which he/she appears to belong, identifies with, or is regarded in the community as belonging.
