PCSO NONDISCRIMINATION NOTICE

The Pinellas County Sheriff's Office (PCSO) complies with applicable federal and state civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, religion, or sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity). PCSO does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, religion, or sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity).

THE PINELLAS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE:

Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact PCSO's Accessibility Coordinator at 727-582-6208.

If you believe that PCSO has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with PCSO's Administrative Investigations Division, by mail, phone or in person at:
